The Humble

ADDRESSES

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,

In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Jovis 19 Octobris, 1721.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for Your Majesties most Gracious Speech from the Throne; and for the great Compassion You have shewn to such of Your Subjects as have had the Misfortune to fall into the Hands of the Moors. And we do at the same time congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Endeavours in Restoring the General Tranquillity of Europe. And we assure Your Majesty, That, as the several Particulars You have been pleased to mention to us, are Instances of the greatest Affection to Your People, and the tenderest Concern for their Interest and Security ;

so we will on our Part consider, with all Temper, Unanimity, and Dispatch, what Your Majesty has been pleased to lay before us ; and will do all in our Power towards attaining the great and good Ends Your Majesty has so Graciously recommended to us in Favour of the Trade, Ease, and Safety of Your People.

His MAJESTIES most Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Thank you for this Loyal and Dutiful Address.
The Zeal you express for My Person and Government, and for the Interest and Happiness of My People, gives Me great Satisfaction.

the Throne ; and for the great Compassion You have shewn to such of Your Subjects as have had the Misfortune to fall into the Hands of the Enemy. And we do at the same time congratulate Your Majesty upon the success of Your Endeavours in Restoring the General Tranquillity of Europe. And we assure Your Majesty, That as the several Particulars You have been pleased to mention to us, are Instances of the greatest Affection to Your People, and the
